

Graduate Impact Scholarship Application: Academic Year 2025-2026

Scholarship Overview:

The Graduate Impact Scholarship is designed to benefit highly motivated and engaged adult learners who value education as a way to improve lives and communities both locally and globally. The scholarship is available to admitted College of Professional Studies master's degree students to help offset some of the expenses of earning a graduate degree. Academic merit and financial need are elements considered in the selection process.

The College of Professional Studies encourages all admitted master's degree students to apply. Preference consideration will be given to students who demonstrate exemplary engagement and measurable impact in community service, leadership initiatives, or other contributions that address community needs. Selection will be based on the applicant's individual achievements, unique experiences, and demonstrated commitment to service, regardless of background.

Students applying for the scholarship must:

- Be admitted to a master's degree and/or be enrolled as an admitted master's degree-seeking College of Professional Studies student
