An Exclusive Learning Adventure for Members of OLLI at the University of Denver
Program # 24912 – A World of Art in San Francisco: Museums, Murals & Communities
Thursday, June 24 to Tuesday, June 29, 2027

Program Overview:

It's no secret that San Francisco has long been a creative hub for a thriving art community. But did you know that "The City by the Bay" is also home to celebrated museums, inspiring murals and growing, diverse communities that are further shaping its art scene? Immerse yourself in San Francisco's art world on this learning adventure that will introduce you the best of European, African American, Asian, Chicano and Latino art communities. Explore collections in the de Young Museum and the Legion of Honor, sister museums that comprise San Francisco's largest public arts institution. Daily lectures and field trips with local experts will bring the city's African American, Asian, Chicano and Latino art communities to life in this one-of-a-kind experience.

Program Highlights:

- Discover world-renowned collections at five of San Francisco's art museums, including the Museum of Modern Art, Asian Art Museum, and Museum of the African Diaspora.
- Set out on an expert-led walk in San Francisco's Mission District to view street art and murals around San Francisco.
- Absorb the powerful diversity of African art at the Museum of the African Diaspora and enjoy a lecture, followed by free time in the galleries.

Program Prices:¹

- Double Occupancy: $2,599
